Our author of interest this half-term is Michael Morpurgo as many of his books link to our topic for this half term: WW2. Our class book, however, will be Goodnight Mister Tom by Michelle Magorian as this will be used within much of our English work and guided reading sessions.

Throughout all units of writing where we study and develop our skill in writing, we will constantly be addressing and strengthening our knowledge and use of SPaG features. Homework will be set to strengthen this further each week during this half-term.

Our first genre of writing that we will study and create will be character descriptions. We will use characters from a range of books, including Goodnight Mister Tom as a basis for this, both to study how a professional author constructs an effective character description as well as analyse the features, such as figurative language, to develop these skills and create our own.

Our next genre of writing will be to study persuasive adverts. This will include looking at adverts from the time of WW2 as well as modern-day examples, focussing on features, such as emotive language and using a range of punctuation to vary our sentences for effect.

Our final genre of writing for this half-term will be a newspaper article. We will again start by looking at real-life examples and analysing these before practising the identified writing features of a newspaper, such as parenthesis, quotes and being able to write succinctly whilst in formal voice.

We will continue to develop our reading comprehension skills through our guided reading sessions and use of Accelerated Reader, as well as increasing understanding of written grammar through writing analysis.

Please hear your child read daily and write a message/ sign/ initial your child's Reading Record book.

Key vocabulary:

Word class, colon, semi-colon, parenthesis, fronted adverbial, relative clause, relative pronoun, subordinate clause, simile, metaphor, personification, inverted commas, facts, statistics, opinion, descriptive, simile, metaphor, personification, emphasis, exaggeration and emotive, formal & informal language, headline, sub-headline, opening paragraph, quotes, persuasive language.

Children will be taking part in daily exercise each morning through our 'daily mile'.

Key taught sessions will include multi-sports where we will look at fitness and various exercises in preparation for an inter-school competition.

Key skills will include: agility, balance, strength and coordination.

Key vocabulary:

Stretch, muscles, ligaments, tendons, passing, catching, control, jumping, sprinting, throwing, sportsmanship, respect, tenacity, teamwork, communicating, marking & anticipation.

Music – We will be focusing on the skills and knowledge of musical vocabulary and performance techniques during this half-term as we will be preparing for our KS2 Christmas production (details of this to follow soon).

Key vocabulary:

Rhythm, beat, pulse, dynamics, pitch, timbre, texture, tempo, duration, projection, emotion, accent and staccato.
