

Headteacher's Blog

Friday 22nd November 2019.

Dear Parents/ Carers,
Welcome to our weekly blog. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any ideas of how to make our school even better or would like to offer to help in school in some way. Don't forget to keep up to date with dates on our school website calendar as it is updated regularly.
Kind regards,
Belinda Athey - Headteacher.

Alnwick Gardens Willow Lantern Workshop with Class 1

A great time was had by all (special thanks to our parent helpers) and the lanterns will go home on Friday. Meet Toni Dunn at the Alnwick Gardens Priority carpark at 5.30pm. and she will give each child a stick for their lantern and they can join in the parade.

Anti- Bullying Week

The children in KS 2 learnt about how to deal with bullying and to make a change which was the theme of this year's Anti Bullying Week last week. Some fantastic posters were designed.

Visitors to Class 3

Thank you to Ms Buckingham for bringing some 'visitors' to school this week. I couldn't resist an extra cuddle with the puppy that is going to join the Athey family!

Art Project.

The children in KS 2 have been working with local artist John Craggs to create some artwork for our school grounds.

Film Club Friday 29th November 3.15p.m.- 5.30p.m.

I am just waiting for confirmation of the films that will be on offer then I will send a letter out. Please save the date as money raised goes directly to the PTA.
