

Headteacher's Blog

Friday 6th December 2019.

Dear Parents/ Carers,
Welcome to our weekly blog. Don't forget to keep up to date with dates on our school website calendar as it is updated regularly.

Kind regards,
Belinda Athey - Headteacher.

Thank you to Barter Books - A very generous donation of £25 gift voucher for our KS 2 Pop Uk Raffle. Please contact school if you wish to buy tickets or available on the night.

Thank you so much to Mannings of Alnwick who have not only donated chicken food and bedding to school in the past but have made and donated this marvellous raffle prize which will be drawn after our performance of A King Is Born. Please contact School if you wish to buy tickets.

Fundraising reminder.

Every week we run a School Lottery. For just £1 you have a chance to receive a weekly prize. At school 24 families are currently supporting us, they have joined and bought a ticket. Another 23 families have registered their interest but have not taken the final step of joining which means they have not purchased a ticket. Please check your details or join if you haven't already as so far we have raised over £600 for school.

Also Easyfundraising - Please join- £403.00 for our cause has been raised so far.

Reminders for next week - For full details please see school website or any of the reminders that were sent out this week.

Class 2 and 3 Concert.

Early Years and Class 1 Performance.

Christmas Lunch and Party.

Movie Night.

PTA Bag Packing at Morrisons.

Well done to everyone who sang at the Church Fair on Saturday. We really appreciate people giving up their precious time over the weekend to help support our local church.

Some reminders for the last week of term -

Children's Christmas Shop
Christingle and Carols.