Headteacher's Blog
Friday 8th November 2019.

Dear Parents/ Carers,

Welcome to our weekly blog. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any ideas of how to make our school even better or would like to offer to help in school in some way. Our dates letter will be with you next week where there are lots of exciting events which I hope to see you there.

Kind regards,

Belinda Athey - Headteacher.

Thanks to John Deere Limited
Our Early Years Class now have a lovely selection of outdoor equipment/ ride on toys which we have managed to purchase or have had donated. Thank you to Richard Charleton and John Deere Ltd who have donated this fantastic tractor.

Art Project.
The children in KS 2 will be working with local artist John Craggs to create some artwork for our school grounds next week so watch this space.

Leadership and Management
I have greatly enjoyed working with children and staff in Early Years, Class 2 and 3 so far this term as part of my Headteachers role in monitoring and supporting the improvement of standards and now look forward to working alongside staff in Class 1. I will be particularly focusing on Special Educational Needs and how children read so please could all parents to keep listening to your children read regularly and to sign their Reading Record.

PTA Fundraising
Air Ambulance Bags
Bags have gone home via the children and should be delivered to our usual places soon. Please drop off to school on Monday 11th November during the morning.

Christmas Fayre - tonight Friday 8th November
Lots of local businesses are joining us for what looks to be a fantastic night. Please join us 6-8p.m. in school.

PTA Bag Pack - Saturday 14th December.
Children aged 8 and over can pack as well as parents or families of younger children.
Please support us where you can as every penny directly benefits the children.

Reminders -
After School Clubs will be on Mondays and Thursdays this half term.
Aldi sports stickers wanted - please send into school before 14th November.
