

There once lived a man named
Daedalus and his Son Icarus.

Daedalus was a skilled craftsman and inventor who made many amazing things.

One day,

^ The king invited Daedalus to the island of Crete and asked if he could make him a maze for his ^{beloved} pet.

Immediately, Daedalus began building the maze for the king.