
In recognition of:
The International Day of Peace
Friday 21st September

St. Bartholomew's will be open from 9.00am

Candles will be available to light

for:

Nations where there is conflict

for:

Relationships where there is conflict

for:

Individuals who are in conflict with themselves

At 12 noon a minute's silence will be observed

At 7.00pm

The day will close with an ecumenical service for peace.

All are welcome

