

2d

Inference Questions

If you're a detective at heart, INFERENCE questions will be just your cup of tea — they're all about finding clues in the text, and using them to work out things that aren't too obvious.

1. Why does Benjamin Dejar decide to visit some of Britain's top jam-makers?

1 mark

2. Read the paragraph on page 24 that begins 'His jams have received...'

How can you tell that Robert Jacobs cares about the quality of his jam?

1 mark

3. What evidence is there that Robert Jacobs is secretive about how his jams are made?

1 mark

4. How can you tell that Benjamin Dejar enjoys eating Robert Jacobs's jam?

1 mark

5. Read the paragraph beginning 'Robert's flavours are traditional...'

How can you tell from this paragraph that the flavours Robert uses are popular?

1 mark

2d

Inference Questions

6. Put a tick in the correct box to show whether each statement is a fact or an opinion.

	Fact	Opinion
Lara Fontesca lives in Manchester.
Lara makes more than one flavour of jam.
Lara's tastiest jam is apple and cinnamon flavour.
Supermarket jam flavours are boring.

1 mark

7. Look at the part of the text that starts "'I'm working on...'" and ends '...the humble pot of jam.'"

What impressions do you get of Lara Fontesca from these paragraphs?

Support your answer with evidence from the text.

3 marks

8. How can you tell that Benjamin Dejar did not want to try the bacon sandwich flavour jam?

1 mark

9. How do you think Benjamin Dejar feels about Lara Fontesca's jams?

Use evidence from the text to support your answer.

2 marks

Reading Raptors can always work out what the writer's on about. How did you get on with these questions?

